Reception of Gov. Booth in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—The reception to Gov. Booth last night, on his arrival from the capital, was a perfect ovation. Thousands of people assembled at the landing with music and transparencies. The houses on the line of the procession were illuminated. Gov. Booth was escorted to the Grand Hotel, where he made a speech congratulating the people on the complete victory over the R. R. monopoly. He referred briefly to Stanford's statement on Thursday at Sacramento, that bonds of the Company cannot be sold in Europe. Since the result of the election was made known he said the bonds are worth as much now as ever, but if the credit of the Company depended on pledging the manhood and independence of the people of California, sooners it credit was destroyed the better.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Kentucky Ku Klux Outrages Exagerated---Only Theives and Murderers Organized for Theft and Plunder---All to be Broken Up in a Few Days.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—A prominent citizen of Cincinnati, who has been spending several days in the Ku Klux region of Kentucky, returned to the city last evening. He reports the country quiet and the people ready to talk freely about their troubles. They claim that the accounts of affairs given recently in letters in the Louisville Courier-Journal are much exagerated, and that the trouble will be stopped by due course of law. One prominent lawyer stated that he had no doubt there was a large organization of Ku Klux, but that many of them were respectable citizens who had no sympathy with the marauders; that within ten days full disclosures would be made of the secrets of the order, and those who have repented of their connection with it would assist in suppressing it. The idea of martial law is not relished by any one. A well known farmer of Owen county asserted that there was no established order, and that the offenders were merely common thieves and marauders.

The Owen county authorities say that the murder of the negro Whitestone is the only one which has taken place in their county. Two of those charged with this murder were acquitted at the preliminary examination, and three others escaped jail a week ago, but they afterwards gave themselves up to the authorities declaring they could prove an alibi. Their examination is set down for to-morrow and it is thought they will be bound over. The Owen county people assert that all concerned in this outrage are ex-members of the federal army.

Relief for Shreveport—The Western Union Telegraph Company Sends Money Orders Free—$500 Sent From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Senator West, of Louisiana, who is now in Washington in order to secure the application of immediate relief to the sufferers has obtained from President Orton of the Western Union Telegraph Company, the following order, addressed to the Superintendents of the Company throughout the country: "Instruct all the managers to send free message relating to the relief of the citizens of Shreveport, and at the request of the Governor or United States Senators of Louisiana, direct contributions of money to be received and transferred by telegraph without charge." By this action on the part of the Telegraph Company, money can be forwarded instantly to the sufferers, whereas by the course of the mails it would require some ten days to get there, by which time the needy might be past relief. Any one feeling inclined to something to the aid of the stricken community of Shreveport, can send it without expense by paying it in at any Western Union Telegraph Station. Contributions are already going forward from this point. This morning, Senator West, in the course of a few hours collected five hundred dollars and sent it off by telegraph.

An Important Decision in Regard to Selling Wine by Manufacturers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The Commissioner of Internal Revevue holds that a person who sells at the place of manufacture, wine made from grapes of his own growth, is not liable to a special tax as a liquor dealer for such sales, but if selling such wine away from the place of manufacture he is liable. A vintner, however, who sells wine made from grapes, not exclusively of his own growth, is subject to special tax therefor, whether selling such wine at the place where made or elsewhere.

We give space to the following communication with pleasure:

OXFORD, N. C., Sept. 15, 1873.

Editor News:

Permit me, through the medium of your most excellent paper, to correct a report which is, to some degree, current here, and which, I learn, appeared in a correspondence from this place to the Sentinel.

Your readers, doubtless, are aware of the intention of Messrs. Horner & Graves to move their school to Hillsboro, and this is the subject to which I wish to allude.

The communication states that the school-boys are decidedly opposed to the idea of going to Hillsboro. Such, Mr. Editor, is not the case. It is true that we have made many friends in this place, and the people, with their many acts of kindness and by the interest they manifest in us, have rendered themselves very dear, and the most pleasant recollections of Oxford and its inhabitants will always be cherished by us, but we have now an education in view; and even were we ever so reluctant to leave the place, having this object in view, and knowing the reputation of our teachers as educators, we would readily leave and follow them to any intended location.

Your readers may rely upon the fact that all the school boys, instead of being opposed to the idea of going to Hillsboro, seem to be elated. Hearing that this report was circulated, I asked many of the boys their intentions, and all, without exception, expressed a desire to go to, and decided preference for Hillsbobro.

In conclusion I will say, that the correspondent must have been misinformed, and that an anxiety for the right light to be thrown upon the subject, induced me to correct this report SCHOOL BOY.

MERCANTILE INTELLIGENCE.—Creech has returned from the North with the largest stock of goods he ever bought before. Every nook and corner in his large marble front building is piled up with goods, and still they come by every freight.

Julius Lewis, the hardware dealer of the Fisher building, returned a few days since from the New England manufactories, with his immense stock of hardware. An old citizen informed us a day or two ago that this firm sold more hardware last year than was sold in Raleigh in ten years before the war.

Simeon Pool, of the firm of Pool & Moring, Grocers, &c., is just from the North with choice selections of goods in the grocery line.

J. M. Rosenbaum, L. Rosenthall and M. Rosenbaum left yesterday morning for New York to make their fall purchases.

Zacharias & Co. are receiving their fall and winter stock of dry goods and clothing. Their new store is now completed, and is one of the handsomest in the city.

W. C. Stronach having returned several days ago, is receiving the last of his large and attractive stock of groceries.

COMPLIMENTARY TO OUR FIREMEN.—General Tidball, commanding the Military post of Raleigh, sends the following communication to Chief Engineer Clawson of the Raleigh Fire Department:

HEADQUARTERS POST OF RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 14th, 1873.

Chief Engineer Clawson, Fire Department, City of Raleigh.

SIR: I desire to express through you, to the department under your charge, thanks for the promptness with which the fire companies turned out last night and for the valuable assistance rendered in checking the progress of the fire which occurred at this point.

When an opportunity occurs this garrison will cheerfully reciprocate this kind act upon the part of the citizens of this city.

Very Respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
JOHN C. TIDBALL,
Major 2d Art. Bt. Brig. Gen'l. Com.

PARDONS GRANTED.—His Excellency, Governor Caldwell, issued pardons yesterday to the following convicts now confined in the State Penitentiary. Geo. McCall, white, convicted of burglary in Wake, January 1870, and sentenced to ten years. McCall is sixty years of age. His application for pardon was recommended by the Judge, Solicitor, Penitentiary authorities and a large number of citizens.

Noah Fox, white of Alexander county, convicted of larceny in the Spring of 1868, and sentenced to ten years. Fox is quite a young man and was drawn into the crime by his father who has since died in prison. His pardon was numerously signed by citizens of Alexander county, Judge Mitchell, Solicitor Caldwell and the prison authorities.

THAT BOQUET.—The prettiest boquet of the season was taken out of the city yesterday evening by a Charlotte gentleman. We are not all envious, if we are a better looking man than the lucky Charlotteer, but we intend to send a marked copy of the paper containing this notice to the good lady of the boquetted gentleman. We saw him several times last winter sitting in the Senate chamber with roses and evergreens neatly arranged on the lappel of his coat. Now he comes down to draw both principle and interest. We bet even he wont carry that boquet home.

FAIR OF THE PETERSBURG AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The rules, regulations and schedule of premiums for the Fourth Annual Fair of the Petersburg Agricultural Society, to be held on their grounds on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 21, 22, 23 and 24, is received. Every preparation is being made by the officers to make the Fair a success, and with the advantage of handsome and eligible grounds, accessibility, &c., it should be. The premium list is liberal and competent judges have been selected. North Carolina is well represented in the awarding committees and also in the list of officers of the Society, in short it is almost a North Carolina Fair, and North Carolina should feel a warm interest in its success.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn from a gentleman who has just reached this city from Western Carolina that on Sunday the 7th inst., a Mr. Bohljack, a highly respectable and useful citizen of Stokes county, attended church in his community to hold a class-meeting. He left the church for his home without company and was found dead some time afterwards in the road, the bridle and one stirrup lying near him. The probability is that he was thrown from his saddle, hung his foot in the stirrup and was killed by the fall and the violent action of the animal he was riding. There was an uncredited rumor that he was known to have had a considerable sum of money on his person, which was missing when he was found. This suggests the idea of foul play.

PETER M. WILSON, ESQ.—We are pleased to see the argument of this gentleman in the case of Turner v. Douglass, recently tried at Warrenton, so highly complimented in our exchanges. Mr. Wilson, who has just entered upon the practice of the law, obtained the degree of Master of Arts at the University of Edinburg, and upon his return, was sometime engaged in teaching in Virginia. He has, however, determined to cast his lot with his native State, and has located in Warrenton. His fine natural intellect, well trained by a severe course of study, the genial disposition which has secured him hosts of friends, and the strict integrity which secures the confidence of all, warrant us in predicting for him a successful future. Our best wishes!

ALAMANCE COUNTY.—We were pleased to receive a call yesterday from Sheriff Hunter, of Alamance, who gives us a good report of the crops and the general prosperity of this good old Conservative county. Alamance has the best water power and more large manufactories on it than any county in the State. It has a peaceable, quiet, law-abiding population that pay their taxes, vote the Conservative ticket, read the Daily and Weekly NEWS and educate their children. Sheriff Hunter settled yesterday with the State Treasurer in full for the State taxes from his county, and was the first Sheriff in the State on the list. Not only this, but he has $4,000 left to pay his county Treasurer when he gets home, as a credit on his county taxes.

PERSONALS.—Capt. Waring the able State Senator from Mecklenburg county, was in the city yesterday.

Col. B. B. Lewis, of Macon, Geo., is on a visit to his friends and relatives in North Carolina. Col. Lewis is a native of Franklin county, but has been residing South for many years. We are pleased to see him in the enjoyment of excellent health.

Maj. J. A. Engelhard, of the Wilmington Journal, and family registered at the Yarborough House yesterday evening.

R. A. Young and T. T. Brooks, of Petersburg, are registered at the Yarboro.

Maj. J. A. Byrne and lady, of Wilmington, are at the Yarborough.

W. J. Norwood, Esq., of Warrenton, is in the city.

Col. R. W. Lassiter, of Oxford, is in the city.

BALL AT KITTRELLS.—We return our thanks to the managers for a complimentary ticket to a hop and cotillion party to be given at Kittrells on the evenings of the 18th and 19th of September.

Our Syme-y will doubtless be well by that time and as he has a beautiful foot for dancing, we propose to enter him as the representative of the NEWS office.

BURGLARIOUS.—The carpenter's cabin of the new fair grounds was burglariously entered on Saturday night and several articles belonging to some of the employees taken therefrom. Suspicion points almost directly to one Douglas Baskerville, who was seen in company with a disreputable character by the name of Eliza Hester lurking around the premises.

THE FIRST SHERIFF.—James T. Hunter, of Alamance county, is the first Sheriff to settle with the State Treasurer. He paid in the Treasury yesterday morning $7,182.06 the full amount of State taxes due from that county.

ACCIDENT TO A GIRL ACROBAT.—Last night a little girl, one of the members of the Lopez acrobats playing in Front-street theatre, after completing her act upon the trapeze, fell ten feet from the floor while coming down to the stage upon a line used for the purpose. She struck upon her stomach, and was nearly stunned by the shock, besides having her mouth cut. She was picked up amid almost breathless silence on the part of the audience, who were fearful that she had been seriously injured, and was carried off the stage. She afterward put in an appearance, to show that she was not seriously injured, and was much applauded by the spectators.—Baltimore Sun, 12th.

An important International Medical Congress is now in session at Vienna, for the purpose of discussing vaccination; the regulation of the social evil: quarantine, with special reference to the cholera; sewerage and drainage of towns; and other stated questions of moment in sanitary science.

Amos Fink, a farmer residing near Lancaster Pa., raised from seventeen acres of wheat an average of forty-five bushels to the acre. This extraordinary large yield is hard to beat.

Further Particulars of the McCook Murder.

Despatches to Richmond Enquirer, dated Yankton, September 12th, gives the following particulars of the murder of Gen. McCook:

Last night an altercation occurred between General E. S. McCook, Secretary of State of Dakota, and P. P. Wintermute, a broker of this city, in the billiard parlors of the St. Charles Hotel. Wintermute used insulting language, which was promptly resented by the General, who gave Wintermute a thrashing. The General then went to his room.

Wintermute, while washing the blood from his face, remarked to the by-standers that McCook could whip him, but that he (Wintermute) would shoot him, and immediately went five blocks, got a pistol and returned. A railroad meeting was in session in the hotel at the time. Wintermute entered the assembly, and McCook, unaware of his presence, also entered the room, when Wintermute raised his arm, and approaching him, fired his pistol, the shot taking effect in the left breast of the General, who grappled with his assassin.

A second shot was fired, when Wintermute was thrown to the floor. During the struggle two more shots took effect, which proved fatal. The General lingered until 7 o'clock this morning, when he expired. He was fully conscious to the last, and died like a brave man. Wintermute is under arrest.

The city is shrouded in gloom, and flags are flying at half mast. At one time it was feared Wintermute would be lynched, but cooler counsels prevailed. The body is dressed in the uniform of a Major General, which he wore during the war. The coffin is draped with the United States flag, and a large concourse of citizens will escort the body to the depot, whence it will be forwarded by a special train to his friends in the East, accompanied by Governor Burbank and other distinguished gentlemen.

A blacksmith at Sioux City wished to get rid of his dog, and while old Towser was taking his noon-day siesta in the sun, the owner gently attached a flask of powder to his tail, and touched it off with a match. His family physician thinks that if he has good luck he may recover the use of his eyes by the time the hair grows again on the dog's back.

The dealers in game and principal restaurateurs of Paris, entered into an arrangement last year among themselves not to purchase partridges or hares from any person out of the authorized season, the penalty being 2,000 francs for each offence. Several of the journals now declare that the agreement has been most honorably observed.

A Chinese proclamation has been issued to prevent the drowning of female infants, and among the arguments used against the practice is that the ghosts of the slaughtered children will avenge themselves upon the unnatural parents.

A little girl, probably six years of age, appeared at one of the juvenile balls held recently at Long Branch in an entire dress of lace of the most valuable description. It was made in the style of the day, and worn over pink silk. The lace being white in color, the effect was beautiful. The dress was valued at $900. The little child also wore diamond earrings, necklace and rings. Five years ago, says Grundy, this same child's father was a bar-keeper in California.

At Louisville, last week, appeared in the railway station a pretty girl, barefooted, with a pair of shoes and a bag in her hand. On enquiry it appeared that she had walked eighteen miles from Salt River to be married to the young fellow of her heart. She was modest, and being annoyed by the observation which she had attracted, marched off in search of her intended.

THE DAILY NEWS.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

TUESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 16, 1873.

THE Rocky Mount Mail has disrobed itself of its patent outside and put on a home dress. We are glad to see this step taken by our valued cotemporary. The Yankee suit did not fit.

THE base-ball fever is raging with unflagging zeal in Eastern North Carolina, on the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad.

When the "cooling season" sets in these stalwart youths will be amazed at their own infatuation.

IMPUDENCE unparalleled—that of BEN BUTLER, in the Worcester Convention, urging the delegates to vote in favor of the resolutions denouncing the back salary bill and the interference of Federal officials in State elections.

THE last Tarboro Southerner has a complimentary article on Governor HENRY T. CLARK, who succeeded the lamented ELLIS and wore his mantle worthily during the troublous times of the war. The Southerner has just cause to be proud of its distinguished countyman.

W. L. THORP, Esq., Editor of the Rocky Mount Mail, publishes a card in his paper in which he goes for Dr. J. H. BURNETT, formerly a citizen of Rocky Mount, now of Newbern, in a manner dreadful to behold. The Doctor is excoriated "without fear, favor or affection."

BUTLER asked the Worcester Convention, which nominated WASHBURN over him, to endorse a resolution censuring Federal officials for taking part in State elections. It is known that these officials were very active for BUTLER and that he courted their influence, as well as that of President GRANT. And yet he called upon the Convention to denounce their interference in his behalf.

Thus the Beast adds ingratitude and base treachery towards his warmest supporters to his other shameful crimes.

THE Kinston Gazette, a paper that is as true as steel to the Conservative party, and has never yet uttered an uncertain voice, is pleased to pay us the following highly flattering notice. Speaking of the new type and enlargement of the RALEIGH NEWS, the Gazette says:

"This is a very healthy sign for the NEWS, and we are glad to note it, for there is not a paper in the whole South that is nearer to our views of a first-class, high-toned, reliable journal than the DAILY NEWS, and we congratulate our friends on their evident success.

"Its corps of editors is second to none in the country, and they labor to make a good paper—and are doing it."

THE Government is taking steps towards the release of Big Tree and Santana. The Commissioner of Indian affairs, Secretary Delano of the Interior Department and Gov. Davis, of Texas, will hold a conference in a few days with the Kiowa Indians, and submit certain conditions precedent to the release of the Indian Chiefs.

Gov. Davis thinks the Kiowas and Comanches ought to be required to surrender their horses to the Government. This, he thinks, will render them unable to go beyond their reservations to depredate upon the citizens of Texas. This would be only a temporary relief. How long would it be before the Indians would have a fresh supply of horses?

Supervisor Perry Qualifies.

We have already spoken in severe terms of the injustice which Supervisor Perry did the Conservative press in his report to the Revenue Department, on the first of September.

The Supervisor falsely charged that the North Carolina Conservative newspapers encouraged violations of the Revenue law. He has sent forward another report to the Department, in which he qualifies his first statement as follows:

"In my letter to you of the 1st inst., I wrote you that the hostility of illicit distillers, and the people in their neighborhoods were encouraged by most of the Conservative newspapers in the State. I was induced to make this statement by observing in all the Conservative newspapers, which came under my eye, false statements concerning the conduct of the civil officers and military, engaged in these expeditions, evidently written by persons in sympathy with the violators of the Internal Revenue laws. These statements, so published, I considered as encouragement to the violators of the law and their abettors.

I am happy to state that the Raleigh NEWS, the leading Conservative paper of the State, and many other Conservative papers in the State, have published counter-statements from the leaders of said expedition, and certificates from parties whom it was charged had been maltreated by them, which is sufficient evidence to my mind, that they did not wish to encourage acts of hostility to those engaged in enforcing the law, and I wish to amend my former statement by striking out the word "most" and inserting the word "certain"—this much in justice to the Conservative press of this State."

The Supervisor might with equal truth and propriety make his retraxit include all the Conservative papers in North Carolina, for we have not seen in one of our exchanges any defence of the violation of the Revenue law.

Now let Collector ROLLINS come forward and retract.

"The Old North State Forever"—Important History.

We publish with pleasure the following article from an able and accurate pen, containing a highly important fact of history which is not generally known.

Our correspondent shows beyond cavil that whether or not North Carolina can claim the honor of the Mecklenburg Declaration of the 20th of May, 1775, or the resolutions of the 31st of May, of the same year, concerning the origin of which there has been considerable discussion of late, it is nevtheless true that our State is still entitled to the distinction of being the first to take official action in favor of the National Declaration of Independence. Whether Mr. Goodloe is right, or Colonel Dowd is right in regard to the authorship of the Mecklenburg Declaration, our correspondent shows indisputably that North Carolina, on thg 12th day of April, 1776, "empowered her delegates in Congress to concur with the delegates of other Colonies in declaring independence and forming foreign alliances." This was in advance of the action of any other State:

[For the Daily News.

MR. EDITOR: In common with many citizens of this noble commonwealth, I have observed with some interest the discussion between Messrs. Goodloe and Dowd, touching the genuineness of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence of May 20th, 1775. As to the merits of that controversy, I propose to say nothing. The Mecklenburg Declaration of May the 20th, may or may not be genuine, but it is a matter of but little consequence to the just fame of North Carolina whether it is or not. The good old North State does not stand in need of the proof of such an event to establish her claim to pre-eminent patriotism. That claim can be triumphantly vindicated by hundreds of noble deeds and gallant acts, coupled with the self-sacrificing devotion of her people, the truth of which stands admitted by all the world. Even if it could be shown that the Declaration of May 20th, or the resolves of May the 31st, 1775, were never made, as claimed by Messrs. Dowd and Goodloe, North Carolina would still be entitled to the proud distinction of being the FIRST State to move for the National Declaration of July 4, 1776. And surely this is glory enough, but the fact does not seem to be generally known.

An examination of the records will show, that on the 12th of April, 1776, the Provincial Congress of North Carolina empowered their "delegates in Congress to concur with the delegates of the other Colonies in declaring independence and forming foreign alliances." This is the first movement by any of the Colonies looking to "independence and foreign alliances," and the moral force of it can hardly be over-estimated. Virginia followed North Carolina at an interval of more than a month, and but for the action of North Carolina, through her Provincial Congress, that of the Old Dominion might have been much longer delayed. It was on the 15th of May, 1776, that Virginia, through her Convention, instructed her delegates in Congress "to propose to that body to declare the United Colonies free and independent States, absolved from all allegiance to, or dependence on, the Crown or Parliament of Great Britain." A comparison of the dates, which I have given, will show that the action of North Carolina, looking to a national declaration of independence by the Continental Congress, preceded that of Virginia by one month and three days. And if the action of the Convention of Virginia went further, and instructed their delegates to "propose" in independence, it was probably, only because they had a positive assurance that the delegates from the Province of North Carolina would "concur with the delegates" of the Province of Virginia in the "proposition," from which a general concurrence might be expected.

I have not written this for the purpose of eliciting controversy, but for the purpose of recalling an important fact in the history of my native State, which seems to have been well nigh forgotten by those who have paid any attention to her history, and never to have been known by many thousands of her citizens, It is certainly a fact no less important than those attempted to be established by the controversy already referred to, and should be as vividly known.

VERITAS.

Yellow Fever in Memphis.

Sunday's telegrams announce that the Yellow Fever has made its appearance in Memphis. It is confined to the north-western portion of the city, which is inhabited principally by the blacks. Thirty deaths have already occurred. Only one death has thus far taken place south of Poplar street.

The fever is still raging at Shreveport, Louisiana.

The authorities at Mobile have quarantined New Orleans as a precautionary step—which will suspend all local travel and business relations between the two cities.

The ravages of this terrible plague have been confined chiefly this season to the Red River country in Louisiana, and its sudden appearance at Memphis will occasion considerable alarm and apprehension as to the spread of the disease to other cities.

Only a few weeks since, the people of Memphis were flying from their homes to escape the Cholera, and many of the fugitives had barely returned before they were startled with the announcement that another pestilence had broken out in their ill-fated city.

WE are anxious to see what the Asheville Pioneer will have to say now about that "armed resistance to the United States authority," since it has been ascertained that the said "armed resistance" was the firing off of pistols by DEAVER and his gang, who falsely reported at Morganton that they had been attacked by bush-whackers. Will the Pioneer publish the certificates of the citizens, exposing DEAVER'S falsehood and trickery?

THE papers are just now publishing long accounts in support of the theory that JOHN WILKES BOOTH, the slayer of LINCOLN, is still alive. This is a mistake. The reference is probably meant for Governor BOOTH, of California, who is the livest BOOTH we know of. He has just won a great triumph over the railroad monopoly in his State—at which the people are greatly rejoicing. See an account of his reception at San Francisco, in our telegraphic columns.

Miss Karnes, of Botetourt, Va., was a little astonished in waking up the other night to find she had a copperhead snake for a bed fellow. It required a good deal of whiskey to counteract the poison from a bite on the foot.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Billiousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as its effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries

THE DAILY NEWS.

TUESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 16, 1873.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Oysters have appeared in Rocky Mount.

Charlotte is supplying Greenville, S. C., with bricks.

Rocky Mount is sore affected with the base-ball fever.

Elias Springs, a good and substantial citizen of Mecklenburg county, is dead.

Tobacco in McDowell county is looking well, says the Rutherfordton "Record."

Thirty-seven thousand brick have been laid upon the Charlotte new Opera House.

E. E. Knight, Esq., made the first shipment of cotton from Edgecombe county.

The new Episcopal Church in Washington was opened for services on Sunday last.

Mrs. Nancy Whitly, of Tarboro, an insane woman suicided by hanging herself on Thursday last.

The "Mountain Messenger" says the fever (whatever that is) is raging in the upper end of Ashe county.

The "Observer" announces the arrival in Charlotte of Capt. R. A. Shotwell, and editorially pays a complimentary tribute to that gentleman.

Blocks of mica 36x18 inches have been taken from the mine of J. P. Allen, of Rutherford county. Glass 10x12 inches is made from it.

Jones, of the Statesville "Intelligencer," climbs a 7½ feet cotton stalk that contains one hundred and fifty bolls, blossoms and squares and crows for Iredell.

A sew mill in the southern portion of Iredell county, belonging to Dr. J. J. Mott, was consumed by fire on Wednesday night last. So says the "Intelligencer."

Mr. David Swinson, of Edgecombe county, has a hog two years old, with four legs and seven feet. So the "Enquirer" is informed. Send him to the State Fair.

The localizer of the Charlotte "Observer" crows lustily over a stalk of cotton raised by a Mecklenburg farmer that is five feet high and contains seventy-six bolls.

The cotton crops of T. W. and J. J. Battle, of Rocky Mount, says the "Mail," have been denuded of leaves by the caterpiller, and Mr. Battle, Sr., thinks the injury serious.

Harriss, of the Concord "Sun," delighteth his readers with a chapter on "Ice making by machinery," which is even better than "Harriss on roller making." But for its length would copy in full.

Boys in Enfield amuse themselves by tieing popcrackers to the coat tails of drunken loafers, and having what they call a morning pyrotechnic display. The "Times" says the conduct of the boys is very undeserving approval.

The Charlotte "Observer" reports the death of Mrs. C. L. Turner, the wife of one of the members of the lower House of the General Assembly, which occured at Turnersburg, eleven miles from Statesville, last Thursday night. Mrs Turner is a native of Richmond, Va., where her remains will be taken for interment.

The Wilmington "Journal" says:

"For several weeks past the work of removing the monument erected to the memory of Capt. J. H. K. Burgwin, at the hermitage, nine miles from the city, on the Rocky Point road, has been going on, and yesterday it was completed. The beautiful monument now stands in Mrs. Parker Quince's lot at Oakdale.

Says the Tarboro "Enquirer:"

"The Sheriff of Pitt county gives notice that there will be an election held in that county on the 2nd of October, for the purpose of voting two hundred thousand dollars to the capital stock of the New York, Norfolk & Charleston Railway Co. From what we learn the county will give a large majority for it, as the people are anxious for a railroad in that section."

From the Warrenton "Gazette" we condense the following Warren items:

The Doctors report a great deal of sickness of a mild type——$1125,00 of the county finances paid out for bridges——Fodder has suffered from too much rain——The cotton rot in the neighborhood of Macon is attributed to deep plowing——Billy Brown, of Macon, is the champion hay croppist of Warren——The singing class which met at Zion on the third Sunday has graduated.——Sam King, of Littleton, will make 25 bales of cotton from 20 acres——Bill Kirkland, of Littleton, is already on the wild turkey patch, (too soon)——R. C. Twitty and John Jenkins will erect a cotton gin at Manson soon.

In reference to the late homicide in New Hanover county, the Wilmington "Star" says:

"A young man by the name of Henry Gurganus was brought to this city yesterday under a commitment from Coroner E. D. Hewlett, charged with being implicated in the killing of Mr. E. J. Walker in Columbia Township on Wednesday last. The specific charge against Mr. Gurganus is, from what we can learn, that he instigated the difficulty which terminated in the death of the unfortunate man Walker. We learn that application for a writ of "habeas corpus" in his case will be made.

F. J. Malpass, the man who inflicted the fatal blow, has made his escape, although it was at first reported that he had quietly surrendered.

After Butler was thoroughly beaten and had backed out, he presented himself with the most unblushing effrontery to make a sheech upon the resolution prepared by his biiterest enemy, Mr. Hoar, and recommended that they be passed without dissent. Among them were the two condemning, first, the back-pay grab of which he was the champion; and second, the impertinent interference of the Government officers in trying to force him upon the people of Massachusetts. Could impudence and shamelessness go further?

A porter one of the Pullman sleeping cars running on the New Haven road was asked by a rustic-looking passenger in shirt sleeves if he had a nail handy. He said he found a place for his coat, but wanted a nail to hang up his pantaloons. The porter fainted dead away.

Sketches of Travel in Western North Carolina, by Our Traveling Correspondent.

NUMBER SEVEN.

How singular it is that tourists are so apt to follow the beaten track of travel. They invent new names to throw a glass over hackneyed themes. Now and then one bolder of heart makes a detour and penetrates regions slumbering in obscurity. The fashionable watering places of the North have long been patronized—our seaside resorts are ever popular and deservedly so, but the time is nigh at hand when the grandeur, glory and beauty of Carolina will be amply appreciated. She has Springs, hot and cold, scattered all along from Cherokee to the Virginia line, which medicinally are superior to Saratoga, and incomparably more palatable. The weary and travel-stained, whose thews and joints have been bumped and cracked by the passage of the Blue Ridge, will, find and enjoy a luxury at the Warm Springs on the French Broad, more exquisite than that of the Sybarite Turk when submitting to the manipulation of henna-pecked fingers, he dreams dreams elysian in the baths of Constantinople. No expense is spared by the proprietor of the Springs to render them an elegant summer resort. The temperature is quite 103°, and for bathing purposes, these waters are unrivalled the wide world over. One feels when emerging from them, as if he was feeding on ether, so invigorating is their tonic effect on the system. They are pronounced to be a specific in rheumatism and in all cutaneous affections. The scenery around the "Springs" is terrifically grand, wildly sublime, and at the same time entrancingly beautiful. The French Broad, here a noble and majestic stream, is in full view. It sweeps quite around the place and is lost to sight, only when the horizon kisses the sky. Heretofore the river has been confined and confined in mountain gorges—anon plunging and growling with a hoarse and angry roar around some huge obstructing rock—then glancing with laughter-loving glee as if in joy at its escape—at times contracted by high precipitous bluffs into a maddened whirlpool—then expanding as the banks recede, into quite a placid lake. But at the Springs it swells into majestic proportions and stays for a while in its course to pay homage to this, the loveliest spot in all creation. Our lovers of the solemn science, our piscators, our modern Waltons, need fear no diminution to their sport in visiting this place, as speckled trout of Scottish size abound. One can stand upon rocks and cast his fly, sure of having a pull that will task his strength and ingenuity. In the glens and on the mountains venator can pursue his favorite pasttime from dewy morn to poetic eve, and right often will he be rewarded for his toil by branching antlers of the bounding deer, if like the chamois hunter of the Alps, he can follow them into their rugged and high retreats. The common black bear is no rara avis in the country round the springs, and though he does not often show fight, yet his glistening teeth and shaggy coat present quite a formidable appearance.

These springs, one of nature's most singular phenomena, are not over 40 miles from Asheville and situated in Madison county. Ascending any of the knobs round-a-bout, one can see East Tennessee. A pleasant way to the tourists of the North would be to come down the East Tennessee or Bristol railroad to Greenville in Green county, and then cross the Alleghany mountains—distance only some twenty miles. The specific gravity of these waters is simply incredible—one need not wait to learn to swim in order to go over his head, as like the waters of the Dead Sea, they are so heavy as to float a human body.

About two miles from the Springs there is a boiling wonder quite on the order of an Icelandic geyser—it comes bubbling up and in such profusion as to form a miniature river. It is deeply impregnated with lime, and yet has no unpleasant taste. Never shall I forget standing on the banks of the French Broad in the witching hour of sunset. The long valley of the river lay marked out on the landscape by a wreathe of vapor, stealing up as if enamored of the fading color of the clouds; and far away, like a silver bar on the rim of the horizon, shone the long line of the flashing river. The mountain sides lay bathed in the purple light of evening; peace and purity were stamped upon the hour and the place. The sweet-singing birds of my dear native State were piping a gentle good-night, full-throated as a prima donna singing down the tenor in a duet. Just then the supper-bell from out the dell rang clearly in the evening air. How quickly all poesy and melancholy fly, when that cheerful voice is heard. Soon now from glen and by every path poured in the gay multitude, and the smooth sward in front of the hotel looked like a plateau of animated flowers, waked by magic from a broidery on green velvet. How proudly I looked upon these daughters of my country—the dark-eyed Georgian—the blonde New England beauty, with airy, sheltering hats, yet concealed no features a painter would draw for his exhibition picture—with complexions transparent in the sun—with lips whose blood is translucent when between you and the light—with cheeks finer grained than alabaster, yet as cool in their virgin purity as a tint in the dark corner of a Madonna. All in the French Broad section nature has scattered her flowers with a lavish hand—they nod at you in the valleys and bloom for you on the mountain peak. The grape, wild and cultivated, clambers over and covers with its caressing tendrils the ledges of huge rocks. And as for amusement, the man who can not find it between driving, fishing, shooting, strolling and sight-seeing, has no business in the country. Close at the base of lordly mountains runs the sparkling stream, coiling about them like a serpent, and away from them spread the broad fields of the valley, laden, as far as the eye can see, with tributes to agricultural skill.

"Low prices will win," and "Small profits and quick sales" are truisms that have been satisfactorily tested by ZACHARIAS & CO., in the city of Raleigh.

By a strict adherance to these important rules, their business has increased so rapidly that necessity compells them at an early day, to commence the work of enlarging and extending their store room.

In view of this fact, they now offer their large and attractive stock of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Clothing, &c., to the public, REGARDLESS OF COST.

DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMPS,

KITCHEN BROS.,

(Successors to CAROLINA PUMP COMPANY, LOCATED IN RALEIGH.)

Are prepared to furnish at short notice the Kitchen Pumps of various sizes with Porcelain Cylinders which can't injure the water. This is a submerged deep well pump, now in use 2½ years without the expense of new packing. We make all sizes, capacity 25 to 150 gallons water per minute, working in every conceivable way and by the use of hose which can be attached in half a minute, these pumps at once become a hand engine of great power, throwing water on the roof of three story buildings, with one hand, and they will stand four to six men safely. We have not heard of one of them being overcome by fire, and yet they have been tested by over fifty fires, saving over $500,000 worth of property. For ordinary use children work them easily if set up by our printed directions, and if so set we warrant them 12 months. Our Double Suction and Force Globe Pumps, also invented by J. L. Kitchen is capable of being used as a drive well pump and is well adapted to steamers and vessels of any class; one man can throw water on the roof of 3 story buildings. But it has a double ended lever and with four men is a very superior hand engine. The No. 2 Globe Pump is 12 inches in Diameter with 1½ suction and 1¼ discharge pipe and throws 40 to 100 gallons per minute, according to speed. The No. 3 Globe, 7 inches in diameter, 1 inch suction and ¾ of an inch of discharge pipe, capable of 25 to 90 gallons per minute. These Globe Pumps are made of cast iron for common use, brass for salt water and block tin for the inside of houses for drinking water, they lift the water 25 feet perpendicular, and you can set it in the house and draw water from springs or wells at great distances.

All kinds of steam and water pipes fitted at short notice; hose, hose pipe, and couplings furnished here, &c.

Send for price list. Give entire depth of wells with good clearances must accompany all orders.

Some few of these pumps have not given satisfaction but in each case it has been attributable to the maker and not the principle of the pump. We are now employing the best mechanics only and are determined to have none other.

MR. J. L. Yours respectfully,

GREENVILLE, April 19, 1872.

MR. J. L. KITCHEN—

Sir—I have been using one of your pumps driven from my steam engine, for supplying my tanks. I have used it continually for two years, and can confidently recommend it for any purpose where water is required. The pump is so constructed that it will last without getting out of order for years, and I have heard no complaint from any of your many pumps used in this locality for yard well pumps.

WM. S. BROADDUS.

John C. German and W. C. Stronach, of Raleigh, give certificates stating that they have had the pump in use one and two years, are perfectly satisfied with it, and it has not cost them one cent for repairs.

Messrs. Wilson and Waddell, at Wilson's Mills, on the North Carolina Railroad, write that the No. 2 Globe Pump, with 150 feet of 1¼ inch hose, purchased from the Messrs. Kitchen to protect their mills and sash and blind factory against fire, is the best pump they have ever seen. They will buy another as soon as it can be made, for another well. Several parties have examined their pump and will buy others like them. aug 5-D&Wtf

A Stage Robbery

Some of the details of a recent stage robbery in the West are given by the Central City (Colorado) "Register." The stage, it appears, left the town of Colfax, Nev., with thirteen passengers and Wells Fargo's express box, containing considerable treasure. At the start they ascended, at a slow pace, to the summit of a high mountain, and then went down on the other side. Shortly afterward it became necessary to cross another "divide," when, just as they reached the summit, four men sprang from behind rocks, seized the leaders by the bits, and bade the driver "get down from there." It was some time before the passengers could understand the interruption, but at last they were made to comprehend it without much ceremony. The driver was ordered to take the horses from the coach and lead them to one side. He obeyed. Next the passengers were told to dismount and seat themselves on a redwood log. Each of the robbers held a double-barreled shot gun, and the order was obeyed with alacrity. The passengers sat still as mice under cover of the shot guns, and silently watched the operations of the robbers in getting at the contents of the safe. The scoundrels drilled holes adout the lock and elsewhere in the door, poured powder into the openings, tamped them, and then lighted the fuse. In a half minute there was a thick puff of smoke, a dull, heavy sound, and there lay the safe open. It was but the work of a minute to sack the bags of gold and packages of greenbacks, and then the robbers ordered the passengers to mount. The travelers obeyed and took their seats; and the driver was ordered to hitch up, and he did as he was told, and was requested to "drive on quick and not lag once for a mile." And the way the four horse team flew away from the locality would astonish a locomotive. The robbers obtained between $8,000 and $12,000. After making the mile in uncommonly quick time, the passengers got to comparing notes concerning the "late interruption," and it was ascertained that every man of the fourteen had a revolver safely stowed away in his trunk or valise.

FINE GROCERIES

— AT —

J. M. MONIE'S,

Two Doors Below Tucker Hall.

We have this day opened at our new store a fresh and largely increased stock of goods. These goods having been carefully selected, they will be found to be all claimed for them, and they will be sold at the lowest possible prices consistent with solvency.

We would call especial attention to our

STOCK OF TEAS,

Our largely increased trade in this line giving us facilities for the constant handling of fresh Teas, which are selected with particular reference to their drawing qualities. As five pounds of Coffee, costing $1.50, is only equal to one pound of Tea, costing $1.25, it is clearly to the interest of the purchaser to look to this fact.

Sugars of all Kinds.

Try our bright, free, yellow Sugar 8 pounds to the dollar.

We keep on hand an elegant lot of Coffee, Cloves, Nutmegs and other Spices, Fresh Country Butter, Wood and Willow Ware, Irish Potatoes, Meal, freshly ground, at $1, Flour of different grades, Rich mild Cream Cheese, Crockery, Toilet Soaps, Washing Soaps; Excellent Mattrasses, Bedsteads, &c.

Call and examine the stock before purchasing elsewhere, as we are determined, all things being equal, we will not be undersold by any house in the city.
